HUSKERS TAKE EARLY LEAD

Cornhuskers March 45-Yards To Score Against Wildcats

36,000 Watch Kansas State Stop First Husker Drive

BY NORRIS ANDERSON.
(Sports Editor, The Star).

MEMORIAL STADIUM — Nebraska's Cornhuskers turned one of their two long first quarter drives into a touchdown to jump to a 6 to 0 lead over the Kansas State Aggies in the second quarter of their Big Seven game here Saturday.

The Huskers scored when Fullback Phil Young smashed over from the Kansas State three yard line with one minute left in the first quarter. Nebraska was placed in scoring position when Fletcher took Ferguson's pass and then lateralled to Schneider who moved to the Wildcats' seven yard line.

The Huskers first march carried 66 yards to the Wildcats eight yard line before they lost the ball on downs.

Earlier in the first quarter the Kansas State Aggies had moved to the Huskers' 24 after recovering the opening kickoff on Nebraska's 46. They moved to the Huskers' 24 on three line plays and end run, and pass, before losing the ball.

More than 36,000 fans crowded into Memorial stadium for the game as the Huskers sought their second Big Seven win of the season.

Game Captains Frank Collopy for Nebraska and Joe Blanchard for Kansas State met in midfield for the toss. Nebraska won and chose to defend the north goal, taking advantage of the 32-mile an hour wind.

FIRST QUARTER.

KANSAS STATE: Kelly's poor kick to the Nebraska 46 was covered by Kansas. Johnston carried the ball for one yard. Nevius made a first down on the Husker 30. Johnston rammed for two. Jochnston lost two yards. Atkins failed to gain. Atkins pass to Nevius was complete for a four-yard gain.

NEBRASKA: Mueller ran for an eight-yard gain to the Husker 34. Young plowed for one. Young drove for a first down. Wiegant made three, but Kansas was offside and penalized five yards. Hutton ran wide for two, but Nebraska was penalized 15 yards for clipping, putting the ball on the Husker 26. Huton made a 21-yatrd gain, but Nebraska was penalized five yards for backfield in motion. Hutton running from a spread formation went to the 34. Hutton was smeared for a two-yard loss. Kansas State was penalized 15 yards for unsportsmanlike conduct giving Nebraska a first down on their own 46. Wiegand carried the ball to the K. State 48. Wiegand's pass was complete to Fletcher who lateralled to Schneider. He was run out of bounds on the Kansas State 39. Hutton, on a double reverse, got to the K. State 14. Young rammed for one yard. Wiegand was smeared for a seven-yard loss. Hutton took a handoff from Wiegand ran eight yards. Wiegand's pass was broken up.

KANSAS STATE: Stehley lost three. Nevius ran for one yard. Atkins was smeared for no gain. Atkins' kick was taken by Wiegand on the K. State 45 and returned to the 41-yard line.

NEBRASKA: Wiegand made no gain. Ferguson's pass was broken up. Ferguson's pass was complete to Mueller for a first down on the K. State 27-yard line. Ferguson's pass was dropped. Ferguson's pass was complete to Fletcher who lateralled to Schneider who got to the K. State seven-yard lnie. Mueller carried the ball to the four. Ferguson made no gain. Ferguson's pass was no good. Young drove straight ahead for a touchdown.

The pass to Collopy who was to hold for the kick was high and the ball was smothered.

SCORE: Nebraska, 6; K. State, 0.

Costello's kick was taken by Atkins on the goal line and returned to the K. State 22.

KANSAS STATE: Johnston picked up three as the quarter ended.

SCORE: Nebraska, 6; K. State, 0.

SECOND QUARTER.

KANSAS STATE: Nevius carried for a first down on the K. State 38. Johnston made five. Johnston was smeared for no gain. Nevius picked up three. Nevius ran wide for a first down on their own 48-yard line. Atkins' pass was incomplete. Atkins' jump pass was too high. Atkin's pass was complete to Johnson on the Husker 46. Nevius carried for no gain, the Huskers taking over on their own 46-yard line.

NEBRASKA: Collopy got to the K. State on a fake play. Wiegand made a first down on the K. State 39. Hutton went wide for four. Young raced to the K. State 15. Young picked up seven yards. Young made a first down on the K. State 2½-yard line. Young drove to the one. Wiegand was stopped short of the goal. Wiegand rammed to the six-inch line. Young failed to score and K. State took over from the six-inch line.

Escapees To Fight Iowa Extradition

Captured Here After Sawing Way Out Of Iowa Reformatory

The two Iowa reformatory escapees, captured here earlier today, pleaded not guilty to "fugitive from justice" charges filed in Municipal court Saturday.

The pair, Charles J. Richardson, Dubuque, Ia., and Orval Gitchell, Omaha, both 23, were placed in the county jail after they failed to make the $5,000 bond set by Judge Edward Fisher. Date of preliminary hearing was set for Nov. 12.

Earlier both Richardson and Gitchell told local authorities that they would fight extradition attempts to return them to the Anamosa reformatory from which they escaped Thursday night.

The pair told police they had escaped from the Iowa reformatory after sawing and prying their bars from their cell window. The two allegedly admitted stealing two cars, one in Anamosa and the other in Dubuque before coming to Lincoln.

The escapees were arrested shortly after local police received a broadcast that they might be in Lincoln. The pair was found sleeping in a parked car.

Questioned at the city jail, Richardson talked freely with reporters contending that he would fight extradition because "I know what I'll get if I'm sent back there . . . at least 25 or 30 years more." To this Gitchell nodded his head.

At Anamosa, Ia., the Associated Press reported Warden Foss David said he will begin at once to seek extradition of the two escapees.

At the same time, he categorically denied a charge that a third 46-year-old Centerville, Ia., negro, escapee still at large, John Bandy, had not been given proper medication for tuberculosis.

This charge was made by Richardson (of Dubuque, Ia.) in a statement to newsmen in Lincoln.

Richardson, in announcing he and Gitchell would oppose extradition, said Bandy was "dying" of tuberculosis.

Richardson said he had entered the reformatory in July, 1947, under ten-year sentence for breaking and entering. He said Gitchell was under sentence on a car theft charge.

Irish Power Over Indiana

3,000 March In Parade Of School Bands

. . Before Football Game

Thousands of Lincolnites and football visitors crowded the sidewalks and spilled out into the streets shortly after noon Saturday to watch 50 Nebraska high school bands participating in the first University of Nebraska band day since the war.

More than 3,000 highschool students, members of the bands, took part. They were preceded by flag bearers and color guards from the marine corps and army and by the Kansas State band and carloads of Kansas State rooters.

The enthusiastic spectators had waited a long time, some for more than an hour, for the parade which earlier had been scheduled for morning and then was postponed.

Mass Formation at Game.

Later in the afternoon the bands joined for a mass formation from goal post to goal post during the halftibe period of the Kansas State-Nebbraska football game. The bands followed a spread formation with a large N formation for Nebraska and a formation of "U. S." Playing of the Star Spangled Banner by the massed bands closed the half-time entertainment.

The halftime program was accomplished with only one practice period, which took place Saturday morning before the parade.

The before-game parade, which lasted nearly a half hour, was watched by four jurges from an army truck parked on O near Twelfth street. The judges, who wrote consecutive criticisms on each band, were: Don Lentz, University of Nebraska band director; Col. Howard John, commandant of the university R.O.T.C.; Capt. W. L. Messmer, professor of naval science at the university, and Lt. Col. John W. Thomas of the university R.O.T.C.

Section Hand Dies In Fire

Body Found In Tool Car Near Saltillo

Hurley W. Spillar, 53, St. Louis, Mo., Burlington railroad laborer, was found burned to death early Saturday in a railroad tool car on a blind siding about eight miles south of Lincoln near Saltillo. He was alone in the car.

Spillar's body was discovered by W. J. Harrison, foreman of the railroad working crew, who said he was aroused at 5 a. m. by sounds that resembled screams. Rushing to the tool car, Harrison found smoke pouring from the car and a can of gasoline burning near the stove.

On opening the door to the car, Harrison told local authorities he found Spillar's lifeless body lying on the floor near a small fire which was moldering in one corner.

According to authorities, the examining physician said Pillar "was burned to death." He reported that it was impossible to determine whether or not there were any bruises on the body because of the surface blisters caused by the fire.

Death Report Made.

Deputy Sheriff Pat Gillispie who was called by the Burlington to investigate said Pillar's clothes were burned off his body and that he apparently died shortly after 5 a. m.

A report of the death was handed to the Deputy County Attorney Herbert Ronin who reported that his office would not act until it had received the physician's report on the cause of Spillar's death. Dr. John A. Brown made the report.

The sheriff's office said that it would continue its investigation into the death.

According to Burlington officials, the car in which Spillar's body was found is being used to house tools used by the section gang working at that point on the line.

Spillar had been with the railroad as an extra gang laborer for about a year.

Husker 2-Milers Defeat K. State

University of Nebraska runners won the two-mile race against Kansas State here Saturday, 14 to 24.

A Kansas State man, George Owen, made the best time, however. He finished in 10:20.4, with Don Morrison of Nebraska about two yards behind.

Other finishers in order: Bill Mountford and Harold Kopf, Nebraska; Don Theil, Nebraska; Trevor Watson, Kansas State; Dean Kays, Kansas State, and Phil Brewster, Kansas State.

Miss Heppner, Former Dean At N. U. Dies

Long Time Teacher, State Women's Leader

Miss Amanda Heppner, former dean of women at the University of Nebraska, died early Saturday morning at a local hospital. She had been seriously ill for the past six weeks.

A native of Lincoln, Miss Heppner served as dean of women from 1918 until ill health forced her retirement Feb. 1, 1939. She was a staff member of the university for 44 years. Her residence was at 2724 Bradfield drive.

It was during her tenure as dean that a number of progressive steps were taken to promote the welfare of women students. Miss Heppner was responsible for formation of the "Big Sister" plan which aided thousands of first year women students to feel at home on the campus. She was dean, too, when Ellen Smith Hall became the center of women's activities and when Carrie Bell Raymond hall, residence for women, was planned and built.

Studied At Sorbonne.

A native of Lincoln, Miss Heppner received her A.B. degree in 1894 from the university, and two years later completed her Masters. She then studied at Sorbonne university in France for two years, continuing in the field of languages.

As an undergraduate student, Miss Heppner became intensely interested in Sanskrit and majored in that subject. She was an excellent student of German and devoted considerable time to other modern languages.

Upon her return to the university in 1896 she taught German and in 1901 was made an instructor in Germanic languages. In 1909 Miss Heppner became an assistant professor of German and continued with that rank until she was appointed acting dean of women in 1917 to succeed Miss Mary Catherine Graham. The following year Miss Heppner was named dean.

Traveled Around The World.

A great traveler, Miss Heppner made five trips abroad, the last one in 1931 when she journeyed around the world. During her absence, her assistant and friend, Miss Elsie Ford Piper, served as acting dean.

During the summers, 1911 to 1914, Miss Heppner conducted groups of university women to Europe and aided in their studies. She was in Europe with a party of students when World war I was declared. It was necessary to cut the trip short and for several days her group was held in Vienna.

At the university, Miss Heppner was considered a fine teacher and made a serious effort to link study and practice. From 1907 until 1917 she was organizer of a student German dramatic club which toured this section of the state presenting German plays.

Sponsored Scholarship.

Miss Heppner was well known around the state for her lectures on her travels. She worked to inspire women students in the study of fine arts, especially in the appreciation of opera. She sponsored a scholarship for student attending the university.

Her interest in education and women's affairs was not confined to the university. She was active in modern language groups and was especially interested in the National Association of Altrusa clubs. She served that organization as national president in 1927.

Miss Heppner held memberships in many societies and clubs, including an association of Nebraska Deans of Women which she served as president. She was a member of Chi Omega sorority, and an honorary member of Alpha Lambda Delta and Phi Chi Theta, women's business administration group. She was also a member of Mortar Board, University of Nebraska women's honorary, and the National Association of Deans of University Women.

Miss Heppner wrote considerably on educational subjects and on travel. She was a frequent contributor to modern language journals.

Survivors include a sister, Mrs. Ella Muff, Lincoln; two brothers, Edmond Heppner of Lincoln and Henry Heppner of Wichita, Kas.; and a nephew, Harold Muff of Sioux Falls, S. D.

Barstow Estate Fixed At $479,463

The estate of the late William T. Barstow, prominent Nebraska grain and lumberman, was valued at $479,463 in an appraisal filed in County court here.

The report listed holdings of 545 shares of capital stock in the Barstow Grain company valued at $177,125; 350 shares in the Koupal and Barstow Lumber company listed at $61,250; 213 shares in Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph company valued at $23,217; and 204 shares of National Bank of Commerce stock listed at $46,920.

Government bonds amounting to $9,420 and $30,986 in cash on deposit at the National Bank of Commerce were listed in the appraisal.

Two Hunters Drown When Boat Upsets

Both Prominent Businessmen At North Platte

LEWELLEN, Neb.—(AP)—Two more hunters have drowned in the waters of Lake McConnaughy, bringing to three the drownings there during the current duck hunting season.

Drowned when their small boat overturned Friday were Dale Dryden, North Platte drug store owner, and his stepfather, Thad Mendenhall, North Platte grain dealer.

Witnesses said the two were in a party of five shooting from a barge on the lake, only 500 yards from the place where 21-year-old Joe Button of Ogallala drowned in a similar accident a week earlier.

The party apparently became alarmed by the high waves whipped up to heights of nearly six feet by 40 to 60 mile per hour winds and started to go ashore. Dryden was reported to have started taking the others ashore one at a time in a small boat. He had made two trips successfully and was making his third trip when the small boat capsized.

Clarence Fairchild, Ogallala rancher, saw the accident from his ranch and went to Ogallala to bring help.

Dryden is survived by his widow, three sons and a daughter.

Former Fairbury Residents.

Dryden, 41, and Mendenhall, 66, both are former Fairbury, Neb., residents.

Mendenhall is survived by his widow, Ollie (Dryden's mother) of North Platte; a daughter, Mrs. Marjorie Humphrey, Oklahoma City, Okla., two sons, Thad, jr., of Chickashaw, Okla., and Edwin L., Ottumwa, Ia., an aunt, Mrs. J. P. Turner, Fairbury, and two uncles, John Mendenhall of Fairbury and Ellis Mendenhall of Kansas City, Kas.

Mendenhall will be buried at Fairbury.

Two-Hour Search.

Bodies of both men were found late Friday after a two hour search. The bodies were about 10 feet apart, near the end of the boat which was sticking out above the water in brush. The site was about 250 yards from shore, near Otter creek.

Dryden and Mendenhall had been hunting from a barge five miles west of Otter creek. On their way back, they stopped at another barge containing three North Platte men, George Solberg, car dealer; C. A. Bradley, bar owner, and H. A. Marble, music company man.

Marble urged Dryden and Mendenhall to remain, pointing out they were two ducks short of their 10-duck limit and furthermore they ought to wait for the wind to abate. But Dryden and Mendenhall went on and soon were obscured from sight by trees and underbrush.

Later Marble and Solberg went to shore for food, leaving Bradley on the barge. As they landed, Ogallala firemen and Lewellen citizens were arriving to start a search for the body. This was the first Marble and Solberg knew of the accident. In the excitement Bradley was forgotten on the barge for several hours, but he was not harmed.

Winter Claims First Victim

GOODLAND, Kas. — (INS) — Jonah King, 67, of Hubbard, Ore., was listed as the first victim of winter snow Saturday.

King's body was found beside his overturned automobile 12 miles north of Goodland as the first snow and extreme cold of the season gripped northwestern Kansas. He was believed to have died of exposure as he sought shelter from 60-mile-per-hour winds.

Today's Chuckle

The Denver street car was passing Civic Center when a young passenger, a small, freckle-faced boy apparently from the country, sighted the two gargoyle-like figures, which from stone mouths, spout constant streams of water into the park large pool. For a long moment the small boy gazed in wonderment at those two figures. Then, grabbing his mother's arm, he blurted, "Gosh, Ma! Look at them things spit!"

Rumors Of Peace In China

Coalition Settlement With Reds Is Hinted

NANKING—(AP)—Rumors of peace moves grew in volume in Nanking today but no responsible official would say that Chiang Kai-shek's government was even considering seeking a negotiated settlement of the Chinese civil war.

The approach of at least three red columns to Pengpu, midway between Suchow and the Yangtze river, raised fresh reports that the national government would abandon its efforts to win the war through fighting and would agree to a coalition government in which President Chiang would obviously not figure.

The return to Nanking of Gen. Chang Chih-Chung, member with Gen. George C. Marshall of the United States and communist leader Chou-En-Lai of the old peace "committee of three," resulted in a flood of claims that he would soon be appointed premier with instructions to seek peace with the reds.

Chiang To Leave?

Another report, which, like all of the others, was completely lacking in official confirmation, said Chiang would travel abroad, leaving vice president Li-Tsung-Jen in charge during the period of negotiation.

Regardless of these reports it was certain that China's future was being charted at an all day meeting of officials with Chiang. No hint came from his office. But informed persons said among those at the meeting were Premier Wong Wen-Hao, former Premier Chang Chun, regarded as Chiang's top trouble shooter, Chang Chih-Chung, Central Bank Governor O. K. Yui, Foreign Minister Wang Shih-Chieh and Gen. Pai Chung-Hsi.

The suggestion that Chiang take a trip abroad to allow his subordinates to salvage what they can from the military and economic wreck of the nation remained a favorite subject of private discussions in Nanking. But there was no one to say whether any members of the government were willing to take the proposal directly to the president.

Ferguson Hall Is Engineering Building Name

. . . Approved By Regents

The new $600,000 electrical engineering building now under construction will be named Ferguson Hall after Prof. O. J. Ferguson, chairman of the electrical engineering department.

The University of Nebraska regents approved at a pre-football meeting Saturday the action honoring Dr. Ferguson, who was dean of the engineering college until 1945 and a faculty member since 1912.

The major appointment of Theodore E. Crocker as assistant professor of architecture was among the eight appointments, eight resignations, and one adjustment made by the regents.

Castor Bean Harvester Developed.

The regents also approved:

A $300 grant to the audio-visual aid bureau for a motion picture of army R.O.T.C. activities at the university. The bulk of the cost will be paid by the army.

Contract with the Research Corporation of America covering a castor bean harvester developed by the university. The organization protects patents on inventions made by non-profit institutions.

HAPPY AND HUMBLE

Washington is a curious place. It has street cars, hundreds of taxicabs, and more than any community's share of coat tail riders. Some of them were out in force at week's end when America's happy, smiling, new "miracle" man returned to the scene of his labors, triumphant, grateful, and ever so humble in the knowledge of the crushing weight which his nation had given him for four more years of headache and heartache.

★

Six months passes in review. Let us say in fancy that it was a hot, humid, sweaty late July night. The crowds had added to physical discomfort. They packed every foot of the Philadelphia coliseum, an estimated 6,000 pounded at the doors in vain. It was past the midnight hour, and thousands of men and women had seen a searing controversy come to a close. Mr. Truman had been renominated, was on his way to the stadium to address the convention.

★

A few weeks later, back home and glad to be free from the jostling, packed crowds, we were invited to address a number of civic clubs on the democratic national convention. In substance we said at that time that whatever his critics may have said of him, whatever impression the American people may have had of him, for thirty minutes in the glare of the Klieg lights and the equally powerful television machines, Mr. Truman completely dominated a national convention. He dominated that convention more than any man had held one in his sway previously. We said Mr. Truman reached the pinnacle of thirty minutes of greatness for all the thousands packed in that stadium, and if never again he reached the pinnacle he would have the satisfaction of knowing that for thirty minutes of history he was "king."

★

Perhaps the reader might be casually interested in some of the reaction from one of the dominately republican civic groups. "That was a swell democratic speech," said a good friend, "but I'm still voting for Dewey." Others had similar observations. It wasn't intended to be a political talk; it was intended to present only one writer's impressions.

★

A friend called right after Governor Dewey graciously conceded his defeat and said:

"America marched all the way back to the days of Andrew Jackson Tuesday."

Jackson was a simple, homespun, fighting man. Nothing that he did measured up, according to orthodox standards. He was crude at times. Inwardly they hurt him with their taunts and their sneers, but outwardly he presented a fighting face and heart. He defied the powerful, he had complete confidence in the people, and an equal confidence in the triumph of any battle carried on in their behalf.

★

We do not know whether the press spent days trying to find out why the overwhelming majority of them was wrong in Jackson's day. Course, they did not have pollsters in his time. Dr. Gallup, Elmo Roper, and the Crossley people were not around when Jackson was doing business. They did not have columnists in the modern sense in Jackson's time. They did not have radio commentators to tell America week after week that Jackson was foreordained for defeat. There are some similarities in the amazing success of President Truman and Andrew Jackson, but there is a pitfall for anyone who attempts to compare a present day American president, or any recent American president with their predecessors in the White House. The more accurate parallel can be drawn in the voting of people, then and now, because when there have been some distinguishing traits which mark one generation of American voters after another.

★

The chief sport of the week was kidding the "kidders."

★

The latter, the "kidders," were wholly unconscious that they were spoofing the people. Never were a group of men more solemn, more earnest, more convinced, and more wrong in that which they spoke and wrote week after week, only to discover that the only people they were "kidding" were themselves.

★

In this era of meat shortage—temporary, limited relief is promised by a new popular dish. It is crow's meat. The Washington Post started it. It will play host to the columnists, the commentators, the pollsters and numbers of others. Mr. Truman will have turkey, the others crow. At this time with winter approaching, it would be an inspired act on the part of Eugene Meyers, owner and publisher of the Washington Post, if he hit upon the idea of coming here to Nebraska for his crow. There is an unlimited supply of it, it darkens the skies. And Nebraska crow by very little stretch of the imagination could have a most appropriate symbolism.

★

Dr. Gallup could have very little difficulty in discovering his mistake. If he wanted to, all he would need to do is go back to his own studies. Two weeks before election he reported that an unprecedented number of Americans said there were neither democrat nor republican—19 per cent of all those voting classified themselves as independents, and Gallup said they were strongly supporting Governor Dewey. They were not. They supported Mr. Truman. They, labor, the farmer, and democrats made up the sum total of Mr. Truman's vote. Never before in any national election has any such group of independents appeared. Dr. Gallup also, without too much effort, could discover two or three groups obviously he did not poll.

★

The week closed on a fitting note. Mr. Truman returned to Washington to wide acclaim. Huge throngs greeted him. He was still the man of humility. He asked for co-operation of all the people. He pledged himself to do the job "to the best of my ability." He said something more that deserves widespread attention. On the train rolling eastward he spoke of the absence of any malice in his heart, any spirit of retaliation. It is that last which is everlastingly important, although the man elected last Tuesday became more powerful than most presidents because of the extraordinary circumstances of his victory. He sensed the need for co-operation because he knows that under seniority rules some of the men in the deep south, who wear the same party label, will offer greater obstacles to him than many of the other parties.

★

It will be difficult to head off Mississippi's veteran John Rankin. Rankin created the standing house un-American activities committee, groused and sulked when the wheels of fortune brought a republican congress to Washington, and stripped him of the committee's chairmanship. Under seniority if it is his pleasure he is in line. Wouldn't that be something? All that happened in connection with this disturbing development in Washington was to exchange J. Parnell Thomas for John Rankin, and on the basis of previous performance in this field, both were a bad guy. There are other cases which no one senses or appreciates more than President Truman. It isn't surprising that in his happiness his eyes were filled with tears, his voice with humility, and every word and gesture indicated he knew fully what could be ahead. But he may take heart in knowing that the American people are with him, and congress should take note they are. The American people approve Mr. Truman, and in unmistakable fashion rejected the currents which characterized the 80th congress.

★

Across the seas the week's developments followed the American pattern. The nations of western Europe were relieved by Mr. Truman's election. Back of the iron curtain it was difficult. The Russian press and the Russian radio applied the soft touch in informing their people. But the communist government, stupid as it has been in interpreting American of thought it could not fumble this one. The American people stand back of Mr. Truman. They endorsed his policy of firmness. They approved his patience and his genuine efforts to leave no stone unturned in order to maintain peace. Though many had said that Mr. Truman had messed up things, the American people Tuesday said that under extreme difficulties he had done a good job. If Moscow fails to get that one straight, the Kremlin is dumber than people suspect.

★

Back again in the harness at work, and in spare hours of play the week brought to a close one era and ushered in another. It was a brief relapse to reaction, one of the shortest on record, two years of a republican dominated congress. The people said they had had enough, and enough was plenty. They looked forward to the final month of football, looked ahead to the first advent of winter, built dreams of warm homes, good books, good friends, and now and then thought of Thanksgiving and of the Yuletide season. Gone were the things that divide, and ahead were many things that unite.

Intense Agricultural Research Program Carried On By Sweden

. . . Gustavson Tells Farm Press, Radio Group

Chancellor R. G. Gustavson told farm press and radio representatives Friday afternoon that committees of businessmen from the United States should visit other countries to start a nucleus for international trade.

Just back from Sweden, where he spent a month as a guest of the Swedish government, the chancellor spoke on Scandinavian agriculture before a group of press and radiomen attending the second annual open house at the college of agriculture.

Want U. S. Goods.

The university head said he was asked "many times" by the Swedish people how to solve the problem of Sweden's getting American goods. Sweden, the chancellor said, wants to buy U. S. automobiles and other commodities but they realize that this country would have to buy Swedish goods in return.

The chancellor also told of the intense agricultural research carried on in Sweden. Since there is a shortage of meat—and it is rationed—the Swedes have developed a yeast with a high protein content in their university laboratories as a substitute.

Rye Yield Increased.

Giving another example of the intense agricultural research, the chancellor said the Swedes have increased the size of the rye grain and upped the acreage yield by 25 per cent. Another example, he said, is the stress placed on forestry research. They have developed a hybrid tree by crossing similar to the way U. S. hybrid corn was started.

The farm press and radio group were told Friday about the university's research in soils. They were shown the college's livestock and staff members explained the breeding program on cattle, sheep and hogs. They toured the new Swine Research Center during the afternoon. They were guests of the university at dinner Friday night at the Cornhusker hotel.

THE UNUSED TALENT

The higher the mountain, the broader the view.
The harder the struggle, the greater the gain.

Many can manage what's easy to do.
Skill's a reward youth must work to attain.

Knowledge by study and patience is earned.
Useless are books that are left on the shelf.

Many a boy to his sorrow has learned
Fooling the teacher was cheating himself.

Nobody rises by wishing to rise.
Vain is the talent bestowed on a shirk.
This is the secret of all enterprise:
Who gets the talent must put it to work.

Chapter 7.

Rosalie Meeghan's mother died in the hospital 10 days after the girl's return. It came suddenly in the way such things do after they have been expected hourly for a long time. And as usually also happens, after all the years of devotion Rosalie was not with her at the end. Not that it would have made much difference, as the poor woman had never been conscious of her return.

It was Father Toughey himself who went to break the news to Rosalie. He knew she would be home, just ready to go out with Joe Monahan, who was boxing in the semi-finals of the amateur tournament that night.

He saw two cars and a group of excited people in front of Rosalie's house, and sighed a little. It would have been better if it had been later and the block enthusiasts had already gone with their champion and his sweetheart. But he had been seen and there was no chance of delay. He drew a deep breath as Pat Bulger hurried up to him, hat in hand.

"And how is Mrs. Meeghan, poor soul, Father?"

"She is dead, my son."

Pat's lips moved in a swift prayer; then he spoke again.

"And you've come to tell them?"

The priest patted his arm. "Yes, Pat. I must do it."

"You—you couldn't wait?"

But the man knew even as he asked. The others knew too, and stopped their gay arguments over fistic things. The priest stood on the first step and spoke in his gentle voice which had a special meaning for every one of them.

"Mrs. Meeghan is dead. I know you all will include her in your prayers. You all know how she suffered, and that is over. I'll send Joe down to you.

Joe opened the door to his quiet knock. The Meeghans' flat was smaller than the Monahan's, just a kitchen, living room, and the bedroom in which the dead woman had lain so long and suffered so much. The only entrance was into the kitchen where Joe had been standing. His dark sweater made him look big, strong, ready for any fight. He spoke quickly.

"Is she better, Father?" Say she is."

"She is better, Joe. She is dead. It is a blessed release."

Joe lowered his eyes. "Must you tell Rosalie?"

"Yes, Joe. But I can't hold you. They are waiting for you downstairs. You're a hero to them, Joe. You must win tonight. For me, too."

"Thanks, Father. But—"

Rosalie came out of the living room, pulling on her gloves. Her face fell at sight of the priest and she stood rooted to the floor. He came to her and put a gentle hand on her arm.

"You must be brave, my child, even braver than you have been."

"You—you mean she's dead?"

"Yes, my child. The release has come."

For a second she stood there swaying, her face drained of color; then her eyes closed and she pitched forward in a dead faint. She would have hit the kitchen table if Joe hadn't leaped forward to catch her in his arms For a moment he stood helpless, then, at the priest's gesture, carried her through the living room into the bedroom, where he laid her gently on the bed.

The priest drew him out of the room. "She is all right. I'll see to her. Go and win for us."

"But—"

The priest half pushed him out through the kitchen door into the hall. Several women were already standing there. The news had spread like wildfire. It was as if the block had been waiting for just this. He picked out two women to help in the apartment as Joe started down the stairs. He told the others they could help best with their prayers and went back to the girl on the bed.

His eyes closed for a moment. He might have dozed off a few minutes and so gotten some much needed rest if a commotion from the kitchen hadn't startled him. Mrs. Harrigan and her friend were insisting on barring out somebody who insisted on coming in. He got up and reached the kitchen as a tall, strongly-made young man forced his way in, with the two old women clinging to his arms and clamoring. He raised his voice.

"Enough, Mrs. Harrigan. I'll speak to him."

The woman dropped her grip but was still voluble. "Father Toughey will attend to you—you spalpeen. The idea o'breakin' into a house o' death like a heathen."

The priest shook his head. "We won't call names, please, Mrs. Harrigan. I'm sure the young man doesn't understand."

"I do understand. I got the news from the hospital. They had instructions to let me know at once. I came from my hotel as soon as I got the message. I knew Rosalie would need me, and I am here."

"Of course. I'm sorry I didn't recognize you, but then I have only seen your photograph—and in uniform. Come in, Wayne. I didn't know you were here. I thought you were in California."

3 Farmers Given Local P-F-L Awards

Soil Most Important U. S. Asset --- Ross

The Lincoln chamber of commerce Friday night awarded prizes of clover and corn seed to three Lancaster county farmers for "outstanding work in the production of livestock and livestock products which contributed to the wealth of the community."

The awards, which were announced by Lancaster County Agent V. H. Petersen at the annual pasture-forage-livestock banquet at the chamber of commerce, went to:

Fred Egger and sons, Sprague.
Ray Olson, College View.
Carrol Ketlehut, Walton.

Addressing the meeting of farmers and businessmen was Don Ross, Des Moines, merchandising manager of Successful Farming magazine. "Soil is the most important asset of the United States," Ross told the group.

Soil Is Wealth.

"All wealth comes from the soil, and the farmer is the only producer of wealth," Ross said. "We are so dependent on agriculture that even people in the cities are finding out that soil conservation is necessary if they themselves are going to eat," he added.

Ross pointed out that the United States has had a 15 per cent increase in population since 1940. "Because of this and the added responsibility of the Marshall plan, we must take care of and improve the soil we now have," he said.

The Nebraska farmer played an important role in the winning of World War II, Ross said, and if a third war is avoided, it will be due largely to the ability of the American farmer to produce more food than any other nation.

Yearly Gross $10,000.

Ross called the Nebraska farmer the "biggest businessman in the state." "The average farmer has a gross yearly income of about $10,000 as compared to the average businessman's annual return of $8,500," he said.

Dean M. Kerl, vice president in charge of agriculture of the junior chamber of commerce, was master of ceremonies at the banquet.

Burwell Man On Missing Plane

SEATTLE, Wash. —(AP)— E. M. Bohy of Burwell, Neb., son of Henry C. Bohy, was listed as a passenger aboard a commercial transport plane reported missing along the rugged north Pacific rim. Three planes have been reported missing, with 38 persons in all aboard and 40 searching planes were fanned out over the area Friday. Bohy was reported one of 17 aboard a Pacific-Alaska air express plane. The other two planes were navy craft with 21 men aboard. The last report from the transport plane was about 5 a. m. Thursday.

Nebraska Offers Attractive Field For Young Journalists

Nebraska has its "green pastures" of journalism, Dr. William F. Swindler, director of the University of Nebraska school of journalism, told state high school journalists here Friday night.

Speaking at the convention banquet of the Nebraska High School Press association at the Cornhusker hotel, Swindler declared:

"During the past three years between 75 and 90 per cent of our graduates have gone into some form of journalistic work in Nebraska.

For Community Service.

"We've had more offers than we can fill in the next five years from retiring Nebraska newspapermen who want Nebraska journalism graduates.

"Big city reporting may seem glamorous, but community newspaper work offers excellent financial opportunities and a chance for the newspaperman to perform a real service to his community."

Dale Fahrnbruch, University of Nebraska law student and former political writer, told the high school journalists the first task of a political reporter is to "give the man on the street, the voter, an accurate, full account of the men who would like to run his government."

An honest account of political news, Fahrnbruch added, is the product of a reporter's abilty to know thoroughly the people from whom he obtans his news, and to know himself well enough to prevent his personal prejudices from coloring his reports.

He added two other attributes of a good political reporter: Dogged determination and untiring effort to get at the truth.

Jeretta Leu, York high school, was toastmistress. Two one-act plays were presented by students in the universty's experimental theater.

Russian Courts Protect Party In Power There

Justice Simmons Tells Engineers

Chief Justice Robert G. Simmons of the Nebraska Supreme court, declared in a Friday night address here that "the courts of Russia exist for the protection of the party in power."

Speaking to 150 engineering educators from Kansas and Nebraska attending the 29th annual meeting of the American Society for Engineering Education at the University of Nebraska, Chief Justice Simmons said:

"The soviets abolished all existing laws and commissioned the judges elected by the communists to carry out the will of the proletariat in compliance with its decrees, to be guided by the socialist conscience."

"I have searched for a definition of the term 'socialist conscience'," Judge Simmons said "As nearly as can be determined, it is equivalent to the policy being followed at the particular time by the Politburo in Moscow.

Class Justice.

"In the United States the ideal is individual and equal justice to all. The ideal in Russia is class justice—and the class is the party in power."

Judge Simmons quoted from a Soviet information bulletin published in 1945 which said that Lenin looked upon the courts of justice as a means of instilling discipline and self-discipline into the working people and that the courts must be organized on democratic lines compatible with the principles of Soviet power.

Courts Are Organs.

"That power is the power of the Communist party," Judge Simmons said. "The courts of Russia are organs of the dictatorship of that party.

"I find no reference in Russia's Constitution to right of trial by jury or the right to the writ of habeas corpus. It is beside the point to say that those things never existed in Russia.

"The point is that we have those things in the United States and we have them because they are the means of preventing tyranny.

"Let me summarize it all in this way: Aside from the field of private litigation, the courts of the United States exist to protect the people from the unauthized power of the government. The courts of Russia exist to protect the government from the power that, by our standards, rightly rests in the people. Therein lies the difference between freedom and lack of it in an organized society."

State Warrants In October $7,201,459

State warrants issued in October totalled $7,201,459, State Auditor Ray C. Johnson reported.

The amount included $1,884,408 drawn on the general fund; $2,966,804 on the highway cash fund and $798,297 for assistance.

MRS. DARWIN FRED DENMAN, JR.

Announcement is made today by Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Gibson of Topeka of the marriage of their daughter, Roberta Ruth, to Darwin Fred Denman, jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Denman.

The wedding was an event of Sunday afternoon, October 31, and the ceremony was solemnized at the United Presbyterian church in Topeka. The Rev. John W. Heslip read the lines.

Mrs. Denman is a graduate of Washburn university where she is a member of Delta Gamma sorority. The bridegroom is a graduate of Washburn university college of law. He is a member of Alpha Delta fraternity, and is dean of Delta Theta Phi, law fraternity. During the war he served with the army counter-intelligence corps.

Polish Up The Handle Or The Old Front Door

IT LOOKS FROM HERE AS THOUGH the handles on the old front doors are to be polished within an inch of their lives next week (beginning Sunday) to welcome all of the guests who will be arriving—There are plans galore, and they will assume definite shape come early week—

* * * *

THE FIRST OF THE ARRIVALS are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cunningham. (Lincoln residents during the time Mr. Cunningham was associated with the school of architecture at the University of Nebraska), who come from Washington, D. C., to spend a week as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ellery Davis.

* * * *

THEN ON TUESDAY come guests from Colorado—Miss Carol Truax (she of the cook-book fame), and Mr. and Mrs. Thayer Tutt, all of Colorado Springs.

Miss Truax, however, will come to Lincoln from New York City, and during her stay here will be the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ayer.

Mr. and Mrs. Tutt are coming from Colorado Springs to be here during Miss Truax's visit, and they will be the house guests of Mrs. Donald W. Miller.

* * * *

ALREADY HERE FROM Washington, D. C., are Mrs. Henry Lowden (Jean Beachly) and her young son, Henry, jr., who will spend several days as the guests of Mrs. Lowden's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Beachly.

* * * *

IN TOWN FOR THE GAME and the week-end are Mr. and Mrs. Merle Converse of Eskridge, Kas., and will be the house guests of former Kansas State classmates, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lyness. Social inducement for the trek to Lincoln was the Converses' son, Verne, who is a member of the Kansas Aggie football team.

* * * *

HEARD TODAY THAT Mrs. W. T. Irons, who has been so seriously ill in Ann Arbor, Mich., has sufficiently recovered to make the trip to Kansas City where she will be the guest of her son William Irons and Mrs. Irons.

'People Who Run Machines' Are Biggest Investment

. . . JEWETT TELLS ENGINEERS

The people who run the machines determine the success of America's industrial enterprise, G. R. Jewett, assistant superintendent of the Western Electric company's Lincoln plant, said here Saturday.

He addressed the closing session of the annual meeting of the tion attended by 150 engineering Education's Kansas-Nebraska section attended by 150 enginering educators and held on the University of Nebraska campus.

"America's famed industrial 'know how' is not solely the product of marvelous machines," Mr. Jewett said. "Management in our company, as in many others, now realizes that its biggest investment is in the quality of people who run our machines."

Mr. Jewett said Western Electric is successfully meeting a tremendous postwar production goal with a ten-point personnel policy. Briefly it is:

(1) pay adequate wages for services rendered, (2) reasonable work hours and safe working conditions, (3) provide continuous employment consistent with business, (4) fit employes into jobs best suited for them, (5) help employes to get promotions, (6) help employes in time of need, (7) encourage thrift, (8) promote social, athletic and recreational programs, (9) provide employes free access to management to discuss problems, and (10) promote a spirit of co-operation and friendliness.

Mr. Jewett asked the educators — representing mainly Kansas State, Kansas and Nebraska universities, to provide engineering graduates skilled in the basic sciences, and imbued with a healthy interest in social problems and human welfare.

Three group meetings Saturday morning discussed engineering design, teaching methods and engineering economy, led by three University of Nebraska faculty members, George C. Ernst, W. L. DeBaufre, and Clifford M. Hicks.

Council Of Church Women

Church school leaders from Nebraska and Colorado attending the regional conference on Christian education at Lincoln were the honored guests, Thursday evening, when the Lincoln Council of Church Women entertained at an informal reception at the First Plymouth Congregational church.

Mrs. Otto Hackman, state president of the Nebraska Council of Church Women, and Mrs. Warren Sisler, Holmesville, chairman of the children's work committee of the state council, presided at the refreshment table, and in charge of the affair was Mrs. M. C. Leonard, president of the Lincoln council.

Mrs. R. F. Bradden and Mrs. John Stahn directed the program of entertainment, and a selection of songs was presented by Miss Barbara Bradden, accompanied by Jack Cole, pianist.

Programs For Woman's Club

Members of the evening division lecture group of the Lincoln Woman's club will hear a book review by Rabbi Samuel H. Baron, Monday evening, at 7:30 o'clock, at the city library. Rabbi Baron will review, "A House Divided," by Ben Ames Williams.

At the regular meeting of the Woman's club home and garden department, Friday afternoon, at the Y.W.C.A., Mrs. C. M. Stewart presented the program on the history of Spode dinnerware. A film, "Clay, Hands and Fire," made at the Spode works in Stoke-on-Trent, England, was shown by Max Barrett, after which a display of Spode china was held.

Sixty-two members and their guests attended the meeting, at which Mrs. R. D. Traver, leader, presided. The group voted to contribute to the Penny Art fund, a general Woman's club federation project.

The next meeting of the department will be held November 19.

Alethean Chautauqua

The meeting of the Alethean Chautauqua will be held at 2 o'clock, Monday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Margaret Jacobey, 4702 Baldwin. Mrs. Kathryn Beers will conduct the lesson.

SKINNY GIRLS

Look Skinnier—in long dresses

The "new look" is no boon for thin, underweight girls. But if there is nothing organically wrong, you can gain those figure-filling pounds of flesh with a doctors great stomachic tonic known as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

Taken regularly, this great medicine works two ways—it quickly helps to increase your appetite and at the very same time aids your digestion to change the food you eat into solid pounds of flesh. A large bottle costs little at druggists or in handy tablet form, only 50c.

Bluebirds Trounce Talmage

SWEENEY LEADS CATHEDRAL TO 33-18 WIN OVER TOP RANKING 6-MAN CREW

BY BOB BERKSHIRE.
(Star Sports Staff Member).

LINCOLN Cathedral slogged to a 33-18 win over a highly touted Talmage six in the mud at Sherman field Friday afternoon.

The mud and cold proved to be no handicap to Dennis Sweeney, Bluebird ace, who passed to Jack Beecham for two scores and scored the other three himself.

Hardly classified as a speed demon, Sweeney used all the deceptiveness and football "savvy" at his disposal as he consistently reeled off long gains against the Bulldogs.

SIXTH WIN.

The victory was the fourth straight and sixth of the season for Cathedral.

Talmage was rated as one of the top six-man teams in the state, though losing a 7-6 game to Chester in the Apple Bowl last Saturday.

The Bluebirds scored first. With the ball on the 29, Sweeney tossed a nine-yard flat pass to Jack Beecham, leading scorer in the Lincoln area, who twisted, weaved and bulled his way for 20 yards to pay dirt.

Talmage struck back. With the ball on his own 18, Denis Meyer faded back and passed to End Wayne Cook who eluded the Cathedral secondary and scored easily. Neither team scored the point after touchdown.

DENNIS RUNS.

Cathedral took the ball and two long runs by Sweeney netted 38 yards and placed the ball on Talmage's 20. Sweeney again tossed a flat pass to Beecham and he scored. Bill Kryger passed to Beecham for the extra point.

With a 13-6 lead at the end of the first quarter, Cathedral was master of the situation for the rest of the game. Talmage never seriously threatened to tie or pull ahead of the Bluebirds.

The teams traded touchdowns in the second stanza. Dennis slogged over from the two and Kryger passed to Burns for the PAT. A blocked punt set the stage for the Bulldog score. Denis Meyer scored on a quarterback sneak. The score at the half, 20-12.

On the first play after the intermission, Bill Rice pounced on a fumble of Bruce Meyer on Cathedral's 30. Two runs by Sweeney netted a score. Jack Trueblood scored the extra point on a pass from Bill Kryger.

Just for good measure Sweeney added another score at the start of the fourth quarter.

Talmage's last score came in the dying moments of the game. Bruce Meyer crashed over from the two culminating a 35 yard drive.

The game was played on a gridiron composed of the right and center field of the Sherman's field baseball diamond. Usually the teams play on a field composed of the infield and right field.

Evidently the Lincoln Cathedral in general and Dennis Sweeney in particular are "mudders," for the Bluebird offense hadn't clicked as effectively as it did in the mud Friday.

Barney Big Dodger Aid

. . . Says Stanky

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn.—(INS)—Little Eddie Stanky of the Boston Braves is on record Friday with some mighty big predictions—ones that nearly rival a recent forecast by Mr. Gallup and Dr. Roper in the field of politics.

The Braves' second baseman in a guest column for Buss Walker of the Chattanooga Times said that Boston and Brooklyn would be the top clubs in the National league next year. Stanky also saw the Braves repeating their pennant winning performance of this year.

He said Rex Barney and Ralph Branca would win 45 games for the Dodgers but added that the Braves' pitching by Johnny Sain, Warren Spahn and Bill Voiselle would still give Boston the flag.

Another prediction by the fiery second baseman was that Branch Rickey would be out job-hunting if the Brooklyn team did not improve in both attendance and on the field.

Stanky also was of the opinion that Leo Durocher would be "on his way west to class D pictures if the New York Giants don't finish one-two-three."

Stanky looked forward to a busy trading season in the major leagues. He said the Dodgers will sell Bruce Edwards and Pete Reiser and in return will obtain either Eddie Waitkus or Phil Cavaretta from the Chicago Cubs.

New Feather Champ Signs For Title Bout

NEW YORK—(INS)—Featherweight champion Sandy Saddler and lightweight Terry Young, New York, signed Friday for a 10-round bout in Madison Square Garden Dec. 17.

Young agreed to make 135 pounds for the bout. Saddler weighed only 124 when he recently knocked out Willie Pep to win the featherweight title.

Vacanti Signs Again

BALTIMORE, Md. — (AP) — Sam Vacanti, 198 pound former University of Nebraska quarterback has joined the Baltimore Colts professional football club. He was released by the Chicago Rockets.

Chadron Scores Victory

24-6 Hastings Win Keeps NCC Title Hopes Alive

GAMES SATURDAY.
Wayne at Colorado college (Colorado Springs).

SCORES FRIDAY.
Omaha, 13; Doane, 6.
Wesleyan, 12; York, 0.
Norfolk junior college, 40; Nebraska Central, 13.
Central (Pella, Ia.), 24; Midland, 6.
Kearney at Peru, postponed.
Chadron, 24; Hastings, 6.

As the season nears its end the only state college game on schedule for Saturday is Wayne State at Colorado College in Colorado Springs, Colo.

TOP GAME.

The critical game on Friday night's bill was at Chadron where the home team defeated Hastings 24-6 to move a step nearer a co-championship of the Nebraska College conference. The best Chadron can do is a tie with Wayne, and in order to achieve that tie the Eagles will have to defeat Doane next week.

The first half of Friday night's game was scoreless but Jack Barker opened the second half with a 93-yard touchdown run on the kickoff play. The field was covered with snow.

Chadron scored twice more in the third period, once on a pass from Barker to Bill Stephenson good for 33 yards and again on a four-yard smash by Verne Lewellen.

In the final period Wally Calvert hit paydirt after a 32-yard end sweep. Near the end of the period Hastings scored after John Moschel recovered a fumble on the Chadron 35-yard line. Bill Perdew tossed three passes, the last one traveling 11 yards to Milton Yost for a touchdown.

NORFOLK WINS.

In the NIAA Norfolk made certain it would have nothing less than a tie for first place honors by clipping Nebraska Central 40-13.

Central scored twice by the airways, but Dennis Buettow and Keith Pilger of Norfolk each plunged for two touchdowns, Bill Fender for one and Don Kellogg raced 41 yards for another.

Other games:

OMAHA — Omaha university won its homecoming game from Doane, 13-6, despite mud and rain, to make it four home wins in a row. Doane held a 6-0 lead at the half, but Omaha scored twice in the third period. The last touchdown was set up by a blocked punt.

PELLA, Ia.—Midland took another lacing Friday night when the Central college Dutchmen rolled over them, 24-6. Don Heller scored two of Central's four counters, Dean Van Zee and Galen Cheuvront scoring the others. Midland did not score until the last three minutes of play.

PERU — The Kearney-Peru game was postponed because of the inclement weather.

Islanders Get Scare

. . . From Fremont

(Special to The Star)

FREMONT, Neb.—The legend of Grand Island football invincibility was a closed book during the first half Friday night, but the Islanders wrote a rousing climax during the final periods to win 13-2.

With the victory went the championship of the east division of the Big Ten conference. The Islanders now hold victories over the four eastern rivals

Fremont gave the undefeated visitors all the competition they could ask. The Tigers held a 2-0 lead at halftime after a Grand Island fumble by Bob Bachman had rolled out of the end zone.

In the third quarter Bobby Reynolds cut loose for a 70-yard end run and a touchdown.

Bob Hahn scored the second marker in the fourth quarter from five yards out. Bachman place kicked the extra point.

Fremont drove to the Grand Island five in the first quarter but could not score. The losers outdowned GI 13 to 8.

Fights Last Night

(By the Associated Press)

NEW YORK — Pete Mead, 159, Grand Rapids, Mich., outpointed Charley (Affif) Zivic, 156, Pittsburgh, 10 rounds.

BOSTON — Tommy Collins, 124½, Fort Dix, N. J., knocked out Jack "Spider" Armstrong, 129½, Toronto, two rounds.

LOUISVILLE, Ky.—Jimmy Robinson, 135, Louisville, stopped Joe Discepoli, 134, Cincinnati, seven rounds.

Peru Game Cancelled

PERU, Neb. — (AP) — The Peru Teachers business office announced today that the Kearney-Peru football game which was postponed Friday night has been cancelled permanently. The game would have been a Nebraska College conference contest.

NE To Try Again Against Benson

. . . VIEWMEN ALSO PLAY TONIGHT

BY GEORGE MILLER
(Star Sports Staff Member)

THE WEATHER was the big winner Friday night as local high school football activity was halted completely.

Northeast and Omaha Benson will try again tonight at 8 p. m. in Magee stadium.

Lincoln and Omaha Central will not reschedule their Missouri Valley conference game which was due at Benson field in Omaha Friday night.

College View and Plattsmouth will meet tonight at Plattsmouth at 8 p. m. in a crucial Eastern Nebraska Seven mix. The game was postponed from Friday night.

Expected winds today may speed the drying of the Magee stadium turf so the field will be fairly fast at game time. If the sod remains soggy, it is a toss up as to which team will profit most.

Northeast would have been a strong beneficiary if Fullback John Nederhaus was fat. But the 195-pound fullback is sidelined with a leg injury and will not play.

His loss leaves most of the running to Halfbacks Barney Bradsby (147 pounds) and George Stephens (135 pounds).

BENSON LEADERS.

Benson will have to use its T formation on the same treacherous field. Homer Smith and Dick Westin are heavier than the Rocket ball carrier and may be able to hit a scoring stride.

The Bunnies have been idle for two weeks. The long layoff has done the team no good, according to Coach Art Harris.

Probable starters:

NORTHEAST		BENSON

Stastney	RG	Martig
Doll	RT	Fiene
Woods	RE	Shaver
Butler	QB	McNeeley
Bradsby	LH	Green
Stephens	RH	Smith
Fredstrom	FB	Westin

College View has an extra day to increase its determnation for a win against Plattsmouth.

If the Viewmen can manage a victory, they will jump to the head of the Eastern Nebraska Seven in place of Plattsmouth. College View has a record of three wins and a tie. The home team has two wins and no defeats.

Both squads have beaten Ashland in loop play Plattsmouth also trimmed Wahoo, the team that played CV to a 7-7 tie.

BIG WIN.

Biggest win on the Blue Devil slate is a 9-7 verdct over Nebraska City. College View has been beaten only by Geneva, one of the state's Class B leaders.

Lincoln high will have to do without the Central game. Although the cancellation gives the Links' injured players extra time to prepare for Grand Island, the lack of competition will not boost Red and Black hopes in statewide rankings.

The cancellation also removes Lincoln from a hope of squeezing into a tie for Missouri Valley honors.

When the game was stopped Friday night at Benson field, there was no alternative date available. Omaha North and Oma-South are slated to use the field tonight.

State PE Group Set

. . . By Means

Three statewide service committees have been appointed by Lou Means, head of the Nebraska association of health, physical education and recreation.

Larry Owens of Hastings college will serve as head of the committee on school and college athletics.

Members include Coach Potsy Clark of the University of Nebraska; Charles Foster of Kearney Teachers; Bill Pfeiff of Lincoln high; Cornie Collin of Omaha South, Jerry Lee of Grand Island; Dale Harvey of Nebraska City and Bill Trupp of Lexington.

Ed Higginbotham of the University of Nebraska is chairman of the committee on public relations, publicity and educational promotion.

Members are Tom Murphy of Omaha Central; Leland Copeland of Kearney Teachers; W. L. Zorn of Gothenburg; Kermit Hansen of Omaha; Joe Di Natali of North Platte; John McIntyre of Falls City; Buford Grosscup of Norfolk; Leo Shuman of Sidney and Alex Cochrane, sr., of Scottsbluff.

Ralph McClintock of Omaha heads the committee on recreation.

Members include Jimmy Lewis and Paul Gilbert of Lincoln; Herbert Meyer of Seward; Mrs. Fred Easterday of Lincoln and Guy R. Davis and Charles Miller of the University of Nebraska.

TITLE WINNER.

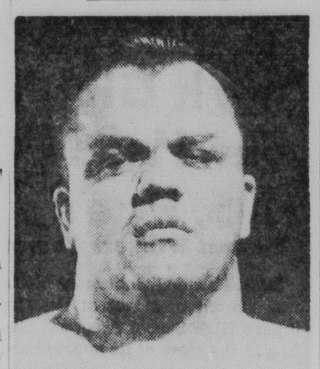
Toney Penna North-South Open Champ

PINEHURST, N. C.—(AP)—Toney Penna, a pleasant, smiling little guy who registers his entry from Cincinnati at golf tournaments but actually lives in Florida, was anxiously scanning the weather reports Saturday after winning the 46th North and South open championship.

It seems that the last big tournament victory Toney won before he triumphed here Friday was the Atlanta open last year. He picked up $2,500 prize money and then learned that a hurricane had taken the roof off his Delray Beach, Fla., home. It cost him $3,500 for a new roof.

And since his totally unexpected victory in the North and South Friday was worth only $1,500, Toney couldn't afford any more storms.

Penna a 40-year-old tournament "regular" who doesn't win very often, sprang a real surprise. He came through with a pair of two under par rounds of 70 to win the traditionally important Pinehurst tourney with a 285 total.



ANOTHER OMAHAN—The Dusek aren't the only wrestlers to come out of Omaha as Dan Plechas (above) will prove to Fairgrounds arena fans Monday night. His opponent will be Tony Novak of Chicago in the other windup match "Red" Vagnone, Mobile, will take on a second Chicagoan, Joe Marsh.

Main event on Monday's card pairs "Wild" Bill Longson of Salt Lake City with WLadyslaw "Sing Sing" Talun. Longson is the only one of a thousand claimants to be recognized by the National Wrestling association as the "World's Champion." Talun's dimensions are his claim to fame. The giant Pole stands six feet and nine inches from the mat to the top of his bald head. In between is 300 pounds of wrestler.

Boys Town Scores Easy Gothenburg Win

BOYS TOWN, Neb.—(AP)—The powerful Boys Town football team sloshed to a 33-9 football victory over Gothenburg Friday in a game played during a cold rain.

It was Boys Town's final home game of the season.

Boys Town scored twice in the first period, twice in the second and once in the third period. Gothenburg scored in the final frame and picked up two more points when they nailed Jake Williams behind the Boys Town goal for a safety.

SIX PINCH HOMERS.

BROOKLYN—Johnny Frederick who played with the Dodgers in the 1932 season as a pinch hitter smacked out six home runs that year, a feat that still stands on the books as a major league record.

HOLLYWOOD, Calif.—Bolton Ford, 134, Los Angeles, outpointed Paulino Montes, 136, Hermosillo, Mexico, 10 rounds.

ACE PUNTER — Harold Bryan of Kansas State has ranked as one of the best kickers in the conference. He will be with the Wildcats today in Memorial stadium against the Huskers.

Good To Hold Coaches Clinics

Harry Good, University of Nebraska basketball coach, will hold five coaches clinics in different parts of the state.

The first will be at York, November 13; the second at Lincoln, November 17; a third at McCook, November 20; then at Omaha, November 27 and at North Platte, December 13.

At York and Omaha, Nebraska players will be taken to aid in the demonstrations while high school players will be used at the other gatherings.

The clinics are designed to show the coaches a variety of fundamental exercises. Coach Good will discuss the various types of offensive and defensive styles.

Success of a clinic held during the teachers convention in Lincoln led to the plans for the sectional gatherings.

Citation To Race In California

SAN BRUNO, Cal.—(INS)—Northern California racing fans will get a look at Citation next month.

Eugene Mori, president of the Tanforan track, announced that the great Calumet farm thoroughbred will run in the $50,000 Tanforan handicap December 11.

Mori said he talked by telephone Friday with Citation's trainer, Jimmy Jones, who told him Eddie Arcaro would ride Citation in the race.

The possibility was seen that Shannon II, the Australian import, might go against Citation. Shannon is now at Tanforan.

York's Upset Fails

Wesleyan Drives For 2 Quick Scores To Nip Foe 12-0 In NCC Contest

(Special to The Star)

YORK, Neb.—Cold weather and mud slowed the Nebraska Wesleyan machine to a near halt Friday night but the Plainsmen generated enough power to score a 12-0 over the luckless York college team.

In marking up their fourth Nebraska College conference win of the season, the Plainsmen had to beat off a persistent York defense that kept scoring at a minimum.

The Panthers dominated the statistics, but two quick bursts gave Wesleyan its touchdowns. York could not move when touchdown land was in sight.

THREE LONG PASSES.

A long pass from Rex Mercer to Bob Ketterer in the second quarter moved the ball from the York 42 to the 11. Wayne Cash took two smashes at the York line and was in the end zone for a touchdown.

Ev Poe's kick for the extra point was wide.

Time ran out in the first half with Wesleyan on the one-yard line. A Plainsman had recovered a fumble on the York 13, Mercer passed to Ray Westover on the two and Aldie Johnson took one try at the line for a yard gain.

The half ended before another play could be started.

End Delbert Miller set up and scored the second Wesleyan marker. He blocked a punt by Claude Crandall in the first play of the final quarter. The kick was started on the York 39, but the former College View star smothered the ball and picked it up on the 25 to run unmolested to the end zone.

This time Harold Porter's kick for the extra point was blocked.

SVEHLA BEST.

Quarterback Ray Scenla was the big noise for York. His passing and running was a big factor in giving the Panthers a 7-2 edge in first downs and a 91-6 margin in net yards gained rushing.

York's most serious threat at a score came in the first quarter when the home team recovered a Wesleyan fumble on the Wesleyan 26. After getting to the 10, the Panthers failed to move farther.

Coach Rollin Tonkin's Panthers thus lost a chance to score their first touchdown in league play this season.

The loss was the fourth against no wins in the NCC play for York.

Sheriffs To Seek Boost In Salaries

Mahlon New Head Of State Group

GRAND ISLAND, Neb. — (AP) —Nebraska sheriffs think their salaries should be raised to the level of those paid county clerks, treasurers and clerks of the District court.

The Nebraska Sheriffs and Peace Officers association Friday asked the legislature in a resolution to make such an adjustment. Other resolutions adopted at the final session of their annual convention proposed legislation which would make it illegal to carry loaded rifles in an automobile; would require taxes on motor vehicles be paid at the same time as they are licensed; and would deny habitual criminals easy access to the board of pardons.

49 Meet In Fremont.

M. C. Mahlon, Scotts Bluff county sheriff, was elected president of the group. Vice-presidents selected were Emmett Trosper of McCook; D. J. Dohrmann of Seward, Herbert H. Hann of Grand Island, William McDonald of Blair and Howard Bechtel of Grant. Clarence Hagstrom of Saunders county was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Fremont was selected for the 1949 convention.

Speakers included Dr. James H. Rinehardt of the University of Nebraska, who discussed the various sex crimes and criminals peace officers are called upon to handle, and Charles E. Sandall of Lincoln, state director of the Nebraska division, U. S. brewers foundation.

Peery Must Stand Trial In Robbery

Bound Over After Preliminary Hearing

Wesley Perry, 24, 554 North Fourteenth, must stand trial in District court on a state charge of robbery, Municipal Judge Edward C. Fisher ruled Friday afternoon after a preliminary hearing. Peery had previously entered a plea of not guilty.

The state charges Peery with the robbery of Rolland Ayres on October 27 and allegedly taking $190. Ayres was employed by the Kinsey Implement and Tractor Truck company, Fifty-sixth and Havelock, where the robbery took place.

During the hearing Ayres took the stand and described the hold-up in detail. Later Jesse Aughe, 30-year-old truck driver, confirmed Ayres testimony.

Aughe told the court of the robbery and stated that he was forced by Peery to participate. The attorney for the defense moved that the proceedings be dismissed but Judge Fisher overruled the motion and bound the defendant over to district court under a $5,000 bond.

Hearing on a second complaint charging Peery with robbing G. B. Griffith of $7 at the Earl Wood store, 1700 N, on October 21, was continued on the motion of Deputy County Attorney Herbert A. Ronin.

HERE IN LINCOLN

Roper & Sons Mortuary 2-6501 Adv

Windows Broken — Approximately 14 window panes in a new house at Cotner and South were broken recently by vandals with air rifles, W. B. Shurtleff, 1532 O reported to police Friday. The damage, including that to newly plastered walls, was set at $50.

Farm Life in Europe—Miss Helen Ochsner, 19-year-old 4-H club member who recently toured Europe, will speak on "Farm Life in Europe" Tuesday at a luncheon meeting of the Lincoln Rotary club at the Cornhusker hotel. She will be introduced by L. I. Frisbie, state 4-H club leader.

Wind, Cold Tapers Off

Two Drownings Result Of Wind

Nebraska's siege of wind and cold showed signs today of tapering off today into a sunny and not-so-chilly weekend.

Two drownings were blamed indirectly on the wind. Two North Platte hunters lost their lives in Lake McConaughy when their boat overturned in choppy waters.

At Beaver City, Neb., the wind prompted evacuation of the Furnas county courthouse yesterday. An Omaha architect had warned that a high wind, heavy rain or snow might cause the courthouse roof to collapse. When the wind yesterday reached velocities of 50 miles per hour and more, courthouse officials evacuated.

21 At Sidney.

The storm which brought Nebraska its wind, cold and some snow yesterday was centered today north of Lake Superior and moving into the Hudson Bay area, Omaha meteorologist E. P. Stapowich reported.

"Beautiful weather, crystal clear and not too chilly" was his description of the weekend weather fare.

The weather word for duck hunters remained discouraging. Yesterday temperatures in Montana and Canada ranged from 40 to 50 and were still mild today. It was no weather to send ducks winging southward.

Omaha and Lincoln had yesterday's high temperature of 53. The low last night was 21 at Sidney.

High-low ranges included North Platte 43-30, Norfolk 51-36, Omaha 53-40, Lincoln 53-46, Grand Island 44-33 and Scottsbluff 46-24.

Precipitation reports over the state during the last 24 hours included .32 at Lincoln, .44 Omaha, .02 Norfolk, and .06 at Valentine. Lincoln's total for the storm period was 1.73 inches.

All Precincts Send Reports On Vote Total

(By the Associated Press)

Every precinct in Nebraska had been heard from as the Associated Press Friday night closed its books on statewide vote tabulations.

The last two precincts to be heard from were Mother Lake and Buffalo precincts in the Cherry county sandhills country. Combined they cast 52 votes for Governor Dewey and 21 for President Truman, Cherry County Clerk E. M. Hodges reported late Friday.

The unofficial totals covering all of the state's 2,024 precincts:

For president: Dewey 258,663, Truman 219,776.

For U. S. senator: Kenneth S. Wherry 260,271; for Terry Carpenter 199,781.

For governor: Val Peterson 279,527, Frank Sorrell 183,460.

The unofficial total in the fourth district congressional race, with all of the 630 precincts report, gave Rep. A. L. Miller 64,031, Edgar Leafdale 36,384.

Absentee ballots still have to be counted.

Kansan Is Named New A.S.E.E. Head

Lynn Helander, mechanical engineering professor at Kansas State college, was elected president of the Kansas-Nebraska Section of the American Society for Engineering Education at the closing session of its meeting on the University of Nebraska campus Saturday.

He succeeds Prof. Harry L. Daasch of the University of Kansas. Other officers: Prof. George Bradshaw, University of Kansas, vice president; Prof. George Ernst, University of Nebraska, secretary-treasurer; and Prof. William DeBaufre, University of Nebraska, representative to the society's national council.

850 Enjoy 'Life With Father' As Given By L.H.S. Students

"Life With Father," an amusing comedy by Lindsay and Crouse, was presented by the senior class of Lincoln high school Friday night to an audience of 850 at the high school auditorium.

Under the direction of Mrs. Hope Westcott, the three act play, which ran on Broadway for several years, was cleverly adapted for high school dramatics.

Byron McLaird gave a splendid performance as the unpredictable Father Day. Vinnie Day, the mother, was played by Mary Kay Tolliver. Harry Kirk, Bill Fields, Jim Owen, and little seven year old Clinton George were well cast as the four Day sons.

Although the play was anti-climactic, the audience enjoyed the confusion which resulted with the arrival of bespectacled cousin Cora, humorously characterized by Susanne Rumpeltes, and her companion, young Mary Skinner, played by Ruth Hiatt. Father's refusal to be baptized, the family's succession of new maids and the romance between Mary and the oldest Day son, Clarence, all added up to an evening of fine entertainment.

English Tractor Executives Visit N.U. Testing Lab

Two tractor company executives from Yorks, England, Saturday visited the internationally famous tractor testing laboratory at the University of Nebraska.

They are F. B. Marsh and H. B. Ashfield of the David Brown Tractors Ltd. Marsh said the two men would spend about two nights in the United States visiting the major tractor companies. But, he said, a visit to the United States "would not be complete without a view of the world famous laboratory of the University of Nebraska."

Marsh said the company is manufacturing about 150 tractors a week, most of them being sold on the British market. Some, he said, go to Europe and South America. He indicated his desire to have a tractor model tested at the university laboratory.

Churchwoman Says Leaders, Homes Needed

"With love and understanding man can rebuild the world which he has destroyed," Miss Bernice Buehler, Philadelphia, told delegates attending the final session of a two-day conference of children's workers Friday evening at First Presbyterian church.

Miss Buehler, who attended world council of Sunday school associations at Birmingham, England, and toured Europe in 1948, showed colored slides of her trip.

Christian leaders all over the world from the United States to Africa to China find they face the same problems, she said, the development of Christian homes and leaders.

30 Million Homeless Children.

One of the major tasks of rebuilding the world with foundations for Christian world citizenship is rebuilding homes for 30,000,000 homeless children of Europe, Miss Buehler continued.

She described the world orphanage at Pestalozzidorf, Switzerland, where children from all countries of Europe learn the history and language of their own country, but have a common class of Christian education and world friendship.

Dr. Paul Reynolds, Chicago, national family life director of the Congregaional church closed the conference with a meditation service.

Richard Freeman New Member Of Consumers Board

Richard A. Freeman, York, became the only new member of the board of directors of Consumers Public Power District as a result of the Nov. 2 elections.

Elected from District 5, he succeeds Walter Boettcher, one of the original board members from Columbus. In 1943, the state legislature established the present election districts.

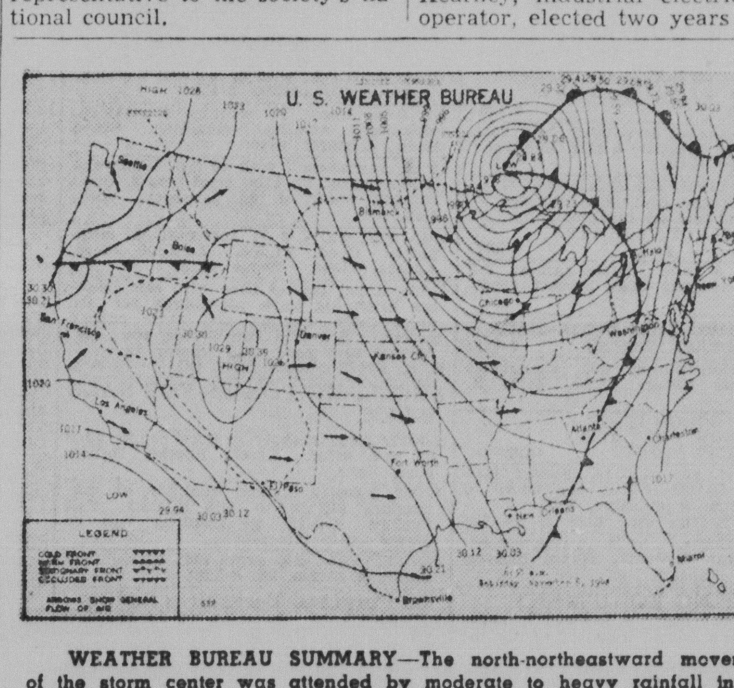
Re-elected were H. G. Greenamyre, Lincoln, District 7; C. C. Sheldon, Columbus, District 3; and Guy L. Cooper, District 6. All members are elected to 6-year terms in a staggered sequence.

Other board members are:

District 1, Earl I. Mead, Scottsbluff oil dealer and mill operator, elected two years ago.

District 2, Guy Stinson, Norfolk, operator of the Fair store, elected four years ago.

District 4, Mark T. Moore, Kearney, industrial electric shop operator, elected two years ago.



WEATHER BUREAU SUMMARY—The north-northeastward movement of the storm center was attended by moderate to heavy rainfall in the Great Lakes region; and showers and thunderstorms attending the movement of the pressure trough and cold front farther south caused heavy rains of over 2 inches in the central and eastern portions of Kentucky and Tennessee and in southwestern Ohio. Rainfall of 1 to 2 inches fell in Alabama, southern Mississippi, and northern Georgia. Light to moderate rains fell near the Mississippi river and in the eastern portions of Nebraska and Kansas. Coastal areas of Washington and Oregon received light rainfall. Highest temperatures in the 40s occurred over most portions of the Rockies and in the Dakotas and the central and western portions of Nebraska and Kansas Friday. The lowest temperatures Saturday morning were in the 20s in the highlands of the eastern Rocky Mountain slope, in the 30s in most parts of the Missouri valley, but in the 40s in Missouri and extreme eastern Kansas. Under the prevailing strong pressure gradient, gale winds have occurred to the west of the storm center.

Consumers To Pay $308,117 Lieu Of Taxes

First Payment To City, County Here Totals $38,390.61

Consumers Public Power District, tax exempt under state law, will make payments in lieu of taxes totaling $308,117.59 during 1948-1949 to cities and counties in which its facilities are located.

The checks, representing $154,058.89 in payments for the first half of the 1948 taxes, will be mailed during the first half of the month to county treasurers throughout the area served by the district.

71 Counties.

Of this first payment, $38,390.61 goes to Lancaster county and the city of Lincoln. The county's share will be $28,538.40 and the city's $9,852.21.

Communities in 71 Nebraska counties, including Lincoln, will receive the payments which constitute real estate and personal taxes, or in lieu of taxes, which are allocated to city, county, state and school tax funds. Of the total approximately 48 per cent will go to public schools.

A further breakdown of the first semi-annual payment shows that $29,045.75 will be paid to communities in 12 counties in the western system and $125,013.14 to communities in 60 counties in the eastern system.

Payment of the second half of the taxes will be made in April.

Mrs. Foss C. Hush Injured Slightly In Car - Bus Accident

Mrs. Foss C. Hush, 52, 1726 Otoe, was injured slightly late Friday afternoon when the car she was driving was struck in the rear by a Lincoln City Lines bus.

According to police, Mrs. Hush had stopped her car for a red light at Ninth and P street intersection when the bus rammed into the rear bumper of the car. Mrs. Hush, shaken up in the accident, was not hospitalized.

Cigaret Causes Kitchen Blaze

A burning cigaret in a waste basket early Saturday morning started a fire that caused an estimated $200 damage to the kitchen in the home of H. R. Kurth, 2435 J.

The fire, which damaged the walls and furniture of the kitchen, was put out by firemen after they were called by Kurth's son, Robert, who discovered the blaze shortly before 1 a. m.

Stock Market Gain Falters

NEW YORK—(AP)—An opening advance in the stock market failed to carry through today.

Fast buying lifted many issues fractions to a point or more but almost immediately selling pressure increased and best gains were trimmed. Some stocks crossed from the plus to the minus column.

Trading was rapid enough for a short while to keep ahead of the high-speed ticker tape. Volume for the day piled up to around 800,000 shares.

Still dominating the market, according to financial quarters, is widespread apprehension over what effect the policies of the new administration will have on present high business profits.

While the factor tended to block buying interest, brokers said that the market had regained, at least for the time being, a degree of stability.

Grains Slump Toward Close

CHICAGO—(AP)—The grain market was not very successful today in trying to extend its post election advance into the fourth straight session. All cereals opened up strong, July and September wheat hitting new seasonal highs, but prices slumped toward the close.

Corn showed the easiest undertone in the closing minutes. In part this was based on a lower trend in the cash market. Commercial interests were said to have bought nearly all the high moisture corn they want for drying purposes at this time.

Buying of 1,008,000 bushels of wheat overnight by Italy gave the bread cereal some support. That country still has 336,000 bushels to buy to complete fourth quarter allocations. It was estimated France bought between 400,000 and 600,000 bushels of soybeans this week.

Week-end evening up operations and profit-taking following three days of advancing prices had some influence in sending prices lower shortly before the close.

Wheat ended ¼@⅝ cent higher, December $2.30⅞@2.31; corn was ⅝ lower to ¾ higher, December $1.40¾@1.40⅞; oats were ⅛ lower to ¼ higher, December 79¼@79⅜; rye was 1¼ to 2 cents lower, December $1.80½; soybeans were ¾ lower to 1 cent higher, November $2.55½@2.55¾; and lard was 27 to 47 cents a hundred pounds lower, November $18.75.

Volunteer Firemen Can Go To Fires In Style

The attorney general's office ruled Friday that it is lawful for a volunteer fireman to equip his private automobile with a red warning light and a siren.

"We believe, however, that it would be unlawful to use such siren or other special equipment except when the vehicle is being used for the purposes of the fire department," the opinion said.

County Attorney Robert Bulger of Bridgeport requested the ruling.

In an opinion requested by County Attorney Arthur Auserod of Bartlett, it was held that a bequest by the late Alice Teresa Lawless to a Catholic church at Erickson, would be exempt from the inheritance tax.

Man Granted Full Pardon Wins Race For County Sheriff

VALENTINE, Neb.—(AP)—Arthur Jones, 54, former Valentine police chief and acting sheriff of Cherry county during World war II, was elected sheriff in Tuesday's general election.

On Oct. 26, Gov. George T. Mickelson of South Dakota signed a full pardon for Jones, who had been sentenced to a term in the South Dakota penitentiary for embezzlement in 1926. Pardon documents showed Jones was discharged from the prison in 1928 after serving the sentence, but he explained to Gov. Mickelson in a letter that unless granted a full pardon he could not qualify for office in Nebraska.

Jones had lived in Valentine for 20 years and served as its chief of police for 13 years. He defeated Chris Schmidt for sheriff by a margin of three to two in Tuesday's election.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.
